

Center for Research on Dutch Jewry (A.R)

ר"ע הולנד יהדות לחקר המרכז

Donated books - June 2014

1. Mrs Corien Glaudemans, researcher at the municipal archive The Hague, who is in charge of the heritage of the history of Jewish The Hague, visited our library and donated several new publications
2. Mr Eldad Kisch, member of the Board of our Center has sent us a new book
3. Mrs. Miriam Alduby-De Haan generously donated to our library the first and 2d corrected version of her autobiography written in Hebrew and also its English translation
4. Mrs Analie Tal-Levenbach donated her personal biography to our library
5. Mrs Els Bendheim, member of our Center and the owner of many books, has sent us a beautiful book on Amsterdam

The Center and the library are grateful to all donors for contributing to and enriching of our collection

Below a list of the titles donated

Shorto, Russell

Amsterdam : a history of the world's most liberal city

New York, Doubleday, 2013

From the collection of Els Bendheim

Glaudemans, Corien

Vier herdenkingsmonumenten aan het Trekvlietplein : Haagse gemeenteambten van de Gemeentelijke Reinigingsdienst, de Dienst der Gemeenteplantsoenen, het Gemeentelijk gasbedrijf en het Gemeentelijk Electriciteitsbedrijf, omgekomen in de Tweede Wereldoorlog. (4 memorial monuments at the Trekvlietplein : Workers of the Municipal Cleaning Services, the Service for Municipal Parks, the Municipal Gas Company and the Municipal Electricity Company, who perished during World War II)

Den Haag, Uigeverij de Nieuwe Haagsche en Gemeente Den Haag, 2014

From the collection of the Hague Municipality

De Vries, Theun de

Spinoza : beeldhouwer : een beeldstormer en wereldbouwer

Amsterdam, Becht, 1972

From the collection of Eldad Kisch

Alduby-De Haan, Miriam

Night like day will shine

Kibbutz Lavi, the author, 2013

Hebrew edition of this book under title: ולילה כיום יאיר

From the collection of Miriam Alduby-De Haan

טל-לבנבך, אנלי (Tal-Levenbach, Analie)

זיכרונות (memories)

תל יצחק, הוצאה עצמית, 2013

From the collection of Analie Tal-Levenbach